Historic Saranac Lake to Document the Time of COVID

May 14, 2020, 2019 — Saranac Lake, NY Historic Saranac Lake announced a new documentation project, “Saranac Lake in the Time of COVID.”

To help document local history, the organization is asking community members to send in responses to two questions:

- 1) How has the pandemic affected your life?
- 2) What have you learned during this experience?

Participants may email their written response or send a voice recording to cpow@historicsaranaclake.org.

As part of the project Historic Saranac Lake will be collecting responses in person at pop-up stations, while maintaining social distance.

Historic Saranac Lake is also conducting full-length oral history interviews by phone. Anyone who would like to participate in an interview is welcome to contact Oral History Coordinator, Kayt Gochenaur at kayt@historicsaranaclake.org

Located at the Saranac Laboratory Museum in downtown Saranac Lake, Historic Saranac Lake’s mission is to preserve and present area history to build a stronger community
